The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 19. to Monday June 23. 1701.

From the Imperial Camp near St. Antonio, June 12. N. S.

ON the 8th Inſtant, about break of day, Prince Eugene of Savoy went from hence to the Detachment commanded by Count Palfy, to view the Country, and Count Guido of Staremberg was ſent to view the River from this Place upwards as far as la Chiuſa. The ſame day, half of Count Taaff's Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, and 4 new-raiſed Companies of Foot, which are to be added to Count Guido of Staremberg's Regiment, arrived in our Camp. The French continue in their Poſt at Rivole, and make frequent Marches and Countermarches, and are continually alarmed by the Body of German Forces poſted at Hala, under the Command of General Guttenſtein. The 9th, Prince Eugene returned hither, having viewed the Country from Count Palfy's Camp as far as Legnano, and 10 or 12 Miles downwards as far as Bogaſo and Caſtel-Baldo, and having alſo obſerved the Enemy's Poſts on the other ſide the River. This day ſome of our Men and the French fired on each other from the Banks of the River, and ſeveral were killed and wounded. The French give out, that in caſe the Germans paſs the Adige, they will cut the Banks of that River, and put the Country under Water; whereupon Prince Eugene ſent Count Viſconti to repreſent to Proveditore-General Molino, who is at Verona, that the Imperialiſts could do the ſame, but would do nothing to prejudice the Country, and that 'tis contrary to the Neutrality to permit the French to put this Deſign in execution, and upon the whole to deſire his ſpeedy Anſwer, that he might take his Meaſures accordingly. The 10th, Major-General Serini marched from hence with a Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, to join Count Palfy. We have Intelligence, that the French are poſted in ſeveral places on the other ſide the River, and have a Camp below Legnano, but often change their Poſts. The 11th, ſome Deſerters came from the Enemy's Camp, who report, that greater numbers would come over to us, but that they are ſtopp'd at Verona, and ſent back to their Camp. Proveditore-General Molino returned an Anſwer to Prince Eugene, concerning the French threatning to cut down the Banks of the Adige, That he had ſent an Account of it by Expreſs to the Senate, becauſe no greater Security could be had of their forbearing to do it, than the Promiſe of the French and Spaniſh Miniſters at Venice; to which Prince Eugene returned a ſecond Meſſage, That if things were brought to that Extremity, he could, in cutting the Banks, do the French as much Prejudice as they could do the Germans, and that the Venetians would be ſure to ſuffer. Prince Eugene reviewed the Regiments of Cuiraſſiers of Taaff and Lorrian, and found them in a very good Condition; and we had Advice, that the laſt Battalion of Manſfeld, as alſo the firſt 6 Troops of Commerci, are arrived at Hala. This morning, by break of day, Prince Eugene went from hence ſeveral Miles downwards to view the River. We had Advice, that the French have got above 30 Boats in their Camp, which were brought upon Wagons from Mantua, to be made uſe of for making a Bridge over the Adige. 'Tis ſaid, that the Troops of Savoy are arrived in the Milaneze, and that to facilitate their March, the Duke has received 150000 Crowns. Advice came this day from Count Guttenſtein, that he had ſent out a Lieutenant-Colonel with 100 Men, to alarm the French Detachment at Monte-Baldo, who gave Notice thereof to the French Camp at Rivole, and two Battalions were ſent from thence to their Aſſiſtance, but the Germans had no Deſign to puſh the Matter farther. Count Guttenſtein adds, that 25 Deſerters came to his Camp by the way of Torbole, but brought no News, having left the French Army ſeveral days before; And ſeveral Deſerters come over to us daily. The River is very much fallen within theſe few days.

Venice, June 17. Our laſt Letters from Verona give an Account, that the Imperial Army continued encamped near that Place, and Count Palfi near Cologna, where they expected more Forces from Germany by the way of Baſſano, and in the mean time were gathering together a great number of Boats and a quantity of Timber, in order to make a Bridge over the Adige; And freſher Advices ſay, that 5000 Imperial Foot and 3000 Horſe had already paſſed the River, about 15 Miles below Legnano. 'Tis ſaid, the French are laying a Bridge over the Adige at Goſſolingo. The French Soldiers having committed ſeveral Diſorders in the Veroneze, the Prince of Vaudemont has been obliged to pay 2000 Crowns by way of Satisfaction to the Inhabitants. The Emperor's Ambaſſador had Audience yeſterday of the Senate.

Mittaw, June 13. Advice being come, that a Body of Swediſh Forces, under the command of General Reinſchild, are advanced in the Neighbourhood of Cockenhauſen, Major-General Robell is gone from hence to command the Garriſon there, and 5 Saxon Regiments are paſſed the Dwina in order to cover that Place. The reſt of the Saxon Forces are preparing to paſs that River, and they expect a conſiderable Reinforcement from Muſcovy.

Copenhagen, June 18. A Treaty was ſigned the 11th Inſtant between the King of Denmark and the States General of the United Provinces, whereby 14000 Danes are to be ſent to the Aſſiſtance of the States; and in caſe Denmark ſhall be attacked, the States are to ſend back the ſaid 14000 Men, and aſſiſt us with 14000 more, or elſe with a Squadron of Men of War. The King of Denmark went from hence the 15th Inſtant, to review his Troops in Holſtein. The Forces that are to be ſent to Holland, have received Orders to be in a readineſs to march.

Vienna, June 15 The Emperor's Birth-day, who is entred into the 62d Year of his Age, was obſerved at Laxemburgh the 9th Inſtant with great Solemnity. The Imperial Court is ſince returned to the Palace at Favorita. Directions are given, for drawing together the Emperor's Forces upon the Rhine; with which are to join thoſe of the Circles of Swabia and Franconia, and other Princes of the Empire. Prince Lewis of Baden will command this Army; and under him, the Emperor has appointed the Count de Soiſſons, Brother to Prince Eugene of Savoy, to be General of the Artillery, Baron Zandt to be Lieutenant-General of the Horſe, and Count Friſe to be Lieutenant-General of the Foot. The Employments of Preſident of the Council of War, and of Governor of this City, vacant by the Death of Count Staremberg, are not yet diſpoſed of. General Gronsfeld is gone from hence to Hungary, to command the Imperial Forces in that Country. Several Perſons have lately been ſeized there, and in this City, upon ſuſpicion of being concerned in the late Conſpiracy.

Franc-